FOR THE STAR.

TO MY CIGAR. Yes, social friend, I love thee well, In learned doctors spite: I love thy fragrant, misty spell,

I love thy calm delight. And when at midnight's lonely hour, Attended but by thee, O'er history's varied page I pore, Man's fate in thee I see.

Awhile, like thee, the hero burns, And frets and fumes around, And then, like thee, to ashes turns, And mingles with the ground.

And while thy lengthen'd column grows, And break and falls away, I trace how Empires thus have rose-Thus tumbled to de :ay.

From beggars' rags to monarchs' robe, One common doom is passed; Sweet Nature's works, the mighty globe, Must all burn out at last.

And what is he that smokes thee, now, A little moving heap, That soon, like thee, to fate must bow-Like thee, in dust must sleep.

And while I see thy smoke roll high, Thy ashes downward go; 'Tis thus, methinks, my soul shall fly-Thus leave my body low.

EXTRAVAGANT SPEECH .- The late Bishop Hedding used to tell an incident in his episcopal career strikingly illustrative of the despot ic power of long indulged habit. At one of the conferences where he presided, a young preacher was charged with indulging to too great excess in exaggeration. He was not said to be guilty of positive falsehood: but superla tives flowed so freely from his tongue, that truth had all the semblance, and frequently did all the mischief of a lie. The young man was sentenced to be publicly admonished by the chair. He stood up in the presence of his brethren, and the Bishop, with the greatest kindness, pointed out the evil resulting from the habit. After hearing him through, the accused, bathed in tears, requested permission to say a few words. He commenced by a can did acknowledgement of his fault, and thank ed the Bishop tor his admonition. Turning to his brethren in the ministry, he assured them of his determination to conquer his be-setting propensity. "I regret it, as much as any of you, I have struggled against it. I have wept on account of it, and I can truly say, it has already caused me to shed barrels of tears."

A young colored person went to a white school, in Boston the other day, and quietly took his seat among the pale faces there. The boy, however, after a day or two, was ejected on account of his crispy head, and ebon skin Whereupon the father sued the city for damages. The boy and his parents are lighter in color than many white persons, the boy, however, appearing slightly the darkest. On the trial, it was shown that the parents were white. while for the government Dr. Stedman, as an expert, was of opinion that the boy was onesixth African, and Dr. Clark city physician, fixed the color at one-eighth. The Court instructed the jury in accordance with the de-Roberts, that the school committee may establish separate schools, and that the question rested sole upon the evidence of color. A verdict was given in favor of the city.

A respectable citizen of Austin says that while returning from Bastrop lately he discovered, at a late hour of night, at a Mexican camp in the vicinity a large number of peons, Mexican women, and Texas slaves. The peons and slaves were playing at monte. smoking eigars, and drinking liquor. He noticed one slave with his arms around a senora, and another senora laying her shawl over a slave while he was reclining on the ground. Such scenes as this have led to the determination on the part of the Texans to warn off all peons who have not the protection of some well known citizen.

A sensible man writes to the N. Y. Journal of Commerce that-"If the pastors of New England had instructed their flocks ten or fifteen years ago out of the word of God,-if they had led public sentiment on the matter of social reform, instead of being lead by it, -it seems to us that New England churches would have been saved from the politico religious fanaticism that is now running through them like wild fire, affecting not only hem, but all the benevolent societies supported by them."

Delirium tremens has more than doubled, according to the Montreal Metical Chronicle, its per centage among the troops, during the last thirty years, and the ratio of deaths to the whole number of cases is increased one

CELEBRATED REMEDY FOR CAN-CER, ULCERATED SORE THROAT, WHITE SWELLING, BRONCHI-TIS, DROPSY, AND ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM THE IMPURITY

OF THE BLOOD. Prepared by J. L. KIDWELL, Chemist, George

The estimate that is now accorded this prepara tion by the medical profession and by others com petent to judge of its merits, may be seen in the fact that it has been prescribed by many of our most eminent Physicians in this country, and has attracted the attention of a celebrated profession of the Edinburg College, Scotland, by whom it has been successfully used in a career of an aggravated character. The proprieter has been forced to make more extensive arrangements to meet the rapidly increasing demand for BERCH DROP.

VINCENNES, INDIANA, Oct. 3, 1854.

J. L. Kidweil—Dear Sir: Some three months ago through the agency of Col Smith Miller, our repre sentation in Congress, I had purchased of you, for the use of my father in Scotland, one dozen Bottle of Beech Drop or Cancer Preparation. I have a letter from my brother, stating that the physician desires you to forward another dozen bottles. He thinks under its use the disease is arrested. I may add that my father has tried every physician of distinetion in Scotland and England, including Profes sors of Edinburg and Colleges, without relief. The disea e was of three years standing, began in the right cheek, which is partially consumed. He was a sufferer with constant pain, wnich has entirely This case will give your preparation a popularity in Britain which no other medicine has. Direct to William Dick, Esq, Collydean, by Leslie Scotland, in care of Messrs. Penfoed, Clay & Oo., Druggists, N. York, who will forward it. JAMES DICK.

Mr. Flint is a man of great influence in his county, and will with pleasure communicate with any one in reference to his case.

CALLAWAY COUNTY, MISSOURI, Dear Sir-With great pleasure I inform that your reparation of Beech Drop has accomplished for me what I thought beyond the reach of human agency For the last twelve years I have been afflicted with Scrofula of a Cancerous form. So extensive was the ulcers and so horrible my appearance that my case became notorious with all the Faculty in this and he adjoining counties-in fact I had obtained the best medical aid in our State, without any sbatement of the disease. Through a friend I procured a half dozen bottles of your Beech Drep, after using it, so perfect was the cure, that hundreds visited me. My desire is to benefit my fellow man; with that purpose I beg all afflicted with Scrofula in any form Enclosed you will find an order from some friends for the preparation. Very truly, JNO. C. FLINT. For Sale by Druggists and Dealers in Medicines in Washington, Alexandria, and Baltimore.
